Garden City Community College Outstanding Faculty Award

The Garden City Community College Outstanding Faculty Award recognizes faculty who have made contributions to teaching that are creative, innovative, and effective. This award symbolizes the college's commitment to teaching and learning. Any full-time GCCC faculty member can be nominated for this award with nominations usually called for in April of each year. Selection of the Outstanding Faculty Member is announced at a Faculty Senate Recognition event late spring. The award was established in 1984-1985 by under the leadership of Dr. Thomas Saffell with supervision of the award turned over to Faculty Senate.
